

Mrs & Mrs Pay were over for tea.
Had a pigeon supper. I broke one of the new saucers.

Thursday 24th

A gloomy day. The men fixed the pipes this afternoon.
Mamma was over to Anna's for eggs. They are draping our city buildings in black in memory of the Queen Papa went to the morning ministerials to night. On Tuesday Mr Stewart's pet fox got away & Laurie Wilson shot it. It killed some of Mrs Pay's chickens.

Friday 25th

One of pipes was put up wrong.
The men came & fixed it.
Mamma was up town in afternoon. She got enough brown goods to lengthen her skirt. Got "Success" of the Buffalo Express is full of pictures of the Queen.

Saturday 26th

Look my lesson this morning.
Mr Read said he was glad to see me. Had 3rd of Mendelssohn's. In the afternoon I went over to see Leta. She was just going to at home at Annie McEdward. Got the Journal to night & a nice Calendar from Peter's Cartridge Co.
