

Very gloomy and rainy all day. Mr J. T. McFrittt died yesterday afternoon about 6.30. Have been harmonizing "God Save the Queen" in Soprano and Alt in "Tenor to Tenor". about 5 o'clock I took some venison in to Tucker's.

TUESDAY 20

(324-41)

Raining again. I wish we could see the sun once more. My cold is worse to-day. In the afternoon Eva came in then went home again & I was dressing and she came upstairs with my Christings present, a mother of pearl mud turtle brooch.
I went to Rays, Dryers, and Hodgetts with venison, and to Meyer's after molasses.
Bessie Read's father died yesterday. Mr & Mrs. Coy and Sidney were over at night. A meeting of the active members of the Musical Circle was held at Mr. Vanderburgh's to-night, but I did not go.
