

Canned our black cherries this morning. I feel horrible to-day. The South of July. Harry practiced a bit. Had a bad thunderstorm in the afternoon. Papa, Mr. Cox & Mr. Fred Southcott went out to lake to see about the boat. Beatrice stopped as she was coming home from the farm. Very hot, but we got some rain which we needed very much.

THURSDAY 5

(186-179)

The lightning struck the Standard office yesterday afternoon. We got our two baskets of red cherries this morning. Did not get through putting them until after two o'clock. There was quite a number of accidents in Yankee Land yesterday. A colored boy shot a revolver among some fireworks outside of a store in Philadelphia, and killed seven children, he among them. The band concert. They played Parson, Ringlars, Cakewalk. We could not hear it.
