

A lovely day. Mamma and I went uptown in the afternoon to see about a new hat for me. Had a whole grebe & some green velvet for fit. Got some silk for ties. Went over to Mrs. Drannan's. Went to Mrs. Pairs. Saw Mrs. Dudley. I stopped in Pairs for Mamma. Got "Dr. Glenzie's Daughters" out of the library.

Raining again. Papa got the Christmas Globe last night and the new book by Marie Corelli "The Master Christian". The Globe has one very pretty water color sketch. Got the letter ready to night to send for. A year's subscription to the "Etude". My presents are finished. The Band has a concert assisted by Harold Jarvis in the Opera House.
